MTSU Winter Music Education Conference

Come join us for the 2016 MTSU Winter Music Education Conference! Enjoy a great day of professional development! Greg Gilpin has chosen outstanding music for reading sessions intertwined throughout the day! If you’ve been to one of his workshops before, you know there is great fun in learning! Looking forward to seeing you!
Greg Gilpin, Clinician

Greg Gilpin began piano lessons at age four and while continuing his music study in piano, trumpet, French horn, and voice, he became an accomplished accompanist for choirs in school and his family's church. By the time he entered college he had developed a strong knowledge of choral music and had directed a church choir for over four years. His first choral works were published while a senior at Northwest Missouri State University, where he received a degree in Vocal Music Education. Today, he is a well-known ASCAP award-winning choral composer and arranger with hundreds of publications to his credit and is a highly respected choral conductor. He performs frequently as a singer with the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra as well as with recording artist Sandi Patty. He currently is director of educational choral publications for Shawnee Press, Inc. and is a member of ACDA, MENC, AFTRA, SAG, and is a Life Loyal Member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia.
