BACKGROUND CHECK DISCLOSURE AND AUTHORIZATION FORM
FOR EMPLOYMENT PURPOSES

The applicant for employment acknowledges that Middle Tennessee State University may now, or at any time while employed, verify information within the application, resume or contract for employment. In the event that information from the report is utilized in whole or in part in making an adverse decision, before making the adverse decision, we will provide to you a copy of the consumer report and a description in writing of your rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.

Please be advised that we may also obtain an investigative consumer report including information as to your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living. This information may be obtained by contacting your present and previous employers or references supplied by you. Please be advised that you have the right to request, in writing, within a reasonable time, that we make a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of the investigation requested.

Additional information concerning the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq., is available at the Federal Trade Commission’s web site (http://www.ftc.gov). For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

By signing below, I hereby authorize all entities having information about me, including present and former employers, personal references, criminal justice agencies, departments of motor vehicles, schools, licensing agencies, and credit reporting agencies, to release such information to Middle Tennessee State University or any of its affiliates or carriers. I acknowledge and agree that this Background Check Disclosure and Authorization Form shall remain valid and in effect during the term of my contract and/or employment, subject to applicable laws.

California Applicants who will require credit report review: Please be advised that your credit will be reviewed for as part of this application process. Specifically, the basis for review pursuant to California law (Section 1024.5(a) of the Labor Code) is:

[SEE ATTACHED NOTICE FOR CATEGORIES]
California’s new labor code provision severely restricts an employer’s ability to conduct credit checks on employees. Labor Code 1024.5 only allows employers to conduct credit checks for employees who meet one of the following categories:

- A managerial position.
- A position in the State Department of Justice.
- That of a sworn peace officer or other law enforcement position.
- A position for which the information contained in the report is required by law to be disclosed or obtained.
- A position that involves regular access, for any purpose other than the routine solicitation and processing of credit card applications in a retail establishment, to all of the following types of information of any one person:
  - (A) Bank or credit card account information.
  - (B) Social security number.
  - (C) Date of birth.
- A position in which the person is, or would be, any of the following:
  - (A) A named signatory on the bank or credit card account of the employer.
  - (B) Authorized to transfer money on behalf of the employer.
  - (C) Authorized to enter into financial contracts on behalf of the employer.
- A position that involves access to confidential or proprietary information, including a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique, process or trade secret that (i) derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who may obtain economic value from the disclosure or use of the information, and (ii) is the subject of an effort that is reasonable under the circumstances to maintain secrecy of the information.
- A position that involves regular access to cash totaling ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more of the employer, a customer, or client, during the workday.

EXEMPT INDUSTRIES: This section does not apply to a person or business subject to Sections 6801 to 6809, inclusive, of Title 15 of the United States Code and state and federal statutes or regulations implementing those sections if the person or business is subject to compliance oversight by a state or federal regulatory agency with respect to those laws. Sections 6801 to 6809 include the following industries (which are excluded from this law):
