Title: Bob Womack Papers

Dates: Various

Creator: Bob Womack

Summary/Abstract:

These are the personal papers of MTSU Education Department Emeritus faculty member Bob Womack related to his research interests. In addition to his expertise in the field of education, Womack also fostered an encyclopedic knowledge of The Civil War, Tennessee Walking Horses, and the Evolution – Creationism debate. These personal research interests are documented in this collection of lectures, correspondence, research materials, and other papers.

These papers are arranged into three series: Civil War, Evolution and Equestrian. From there, materials are arranged into subseries based on topic within these themes.

Biographical Note:

Bob Womack was a professor in the Educational Leadership Department at Middle Tennessee State University, where he taught for more than 36 years. Womack earned his Bachelor of Science degree in 1948 and his Master of Arts degree in 1952 from Middle Tennessee State College. In 1956, he completed his Education Doctorate at George Peabody College. Womack is a recognized expert in two areas outside teaching- the history of the Tennessee Walking Horses and the history of the Civil War.

Scope and Content:

Research materials collected by MTSU Professor Bob Womack on the subjects of evolution, Civil War, and equestrian history. The Bob Womack Papers consist of a variety of research materials that Dr. Womack collected during his career. The three main categories in the papers are the Civil War, the history of evolution, and equestrian history. The files consist primarily of newspaper and magazine clippings and photocopies of primary source materials (such as letters and diaries) on dozens of subtopics. Many files also include Dr. Womack's own correspondence regarding these topics.

Civil War Series

Files in the Civil War Series include Dr. Womack's correspondence, copies of articles, and copies of primary source materials on a variety of topics related to the Civil War, notably battle sites. Battles covered in this series include Franklin , Murfreesboro , Nashville , Shiloh , and Stone's River. The series also contains files on soldiers and other people who lived during the Civil War period, as well as materials related to historic places and information regarding re-enactments of the Civil War. Also included are the texts of lectures and articles that Dr. Womack prepared using the research material collected here.

Evolution Series

This series contains information on debates over creationism and evolution, including articles and newspaper clippings, files on fossils, and religious sources related to evolution. In addition, the series has materials related to the Scopes Trial in Dayton, Tennessee .

Equestrian Series

This series contains information regarding horse auctions, the Tennessee Walking Horse Celebration and materials on controversies and scandals in the horse industry. In addition, the series has information on breeds, horse shows, and people involved in breeding and showing horses.

Associated Materials: There are no known associated materials.

Related Collections:

The Margaret Lindsley Warden Collection also contains equestrian materials.
