Events on the calendar may have changed. See mtsu.edu/calendar for current information.

Ongoing, Walker Library, First Floor Atrium
This exhibit features memorabilia from the 2017, 2018, and 2019 Women’s Marches in Nashville and solidarity with the national march.
Sponsored by the Diversity Sub-Committee of the MTSU President’s Commission on the Status of Women.
Info: Jayme Brunson, jayme.brunson@mtsu.edu

Friday, March 1 and Thursday, March 21
StartSmart: “The Art of Negotiation” 4:30–5:30 p.m., BAS, Room S326
This program is designed to teach college women how to negotiate their salaries and benefits. Seats are limited to 20. Call 615-898-5725 or email jacwns@mtsu.edu to reserve your seat.
Info: Debra Winans, jacwns@mtsu.edu

Monday, March 11
Importance of Mentoring: Move Forward, Reach Back. 4:00–5:30 p.m., Meet and Greet the Speakers; 6:00–7:00 p.m., Roundtable; Science Bldg., Room 1003
Dr. Donna Dever and Cindy Simpson, will encourage diverse, faculty, staff, and the community to learn strategies for successful mentoring and networking for today and for one’s career.
Info: Dr. Judith Intratto-Gross, judith.intratto-gross@mtsu.edu

Tuesday, March 12
Getting the Most Out of Your Mentoring Relationships 10:00–11:30 a.m. and 1:00–3:00 p.m., Tom Jackson Bldg.
Dr. Mary Hoffschwelle, state director for the Tennessee Minority Education and Development Network. This session facilitates discussion about what mentoring means and how to be an effective mentor.
Info: Dr. Judith Intratto-Gross, judith.intratto-gross@mtsu.edu

NWWM Opening Ceremony 5:00 p.m., Student Union Ballroom
An evening of live music pays tribute to American singer Aretha Franklin and amazing women within our community. The 2019 theme, “Visoratory Women,” honors women who consciously built supportive, nonviolent alternatives and loving communities while advocating change. They have given voice to the unrepresented and hope to others.” That theme is especially relevant.
Info: Connor Hubbard, connor.hubbard@mtsu.edu; Barbara Scales, barbara.scales@mtsu.edu

Thursday, March 14
“Scaling the Glass Ceiling” Panel Discussion 6:30 p.m., Student Union Ballroom
This discussion includes strategies to encourage women to feel empowered and how men can help break the barrier.
Info: Alpha Omicron Pi, gvn2a@mtmail.mtsu.edu

Monday, March 18
“Historical Trauma andACES” 5:30–7:00 p.m., BAS, State Farm Room
Dr. Minas Lewin has been a lifelong force in addressing historical trauma as part of adverse childhood experiences (ACES). Much of her work builds on the work of other researchers among African-American children and caregivers.
Info: Dr. Vickie Harden, vickie.harden@mtsu.edu

Tuesday, March 19
Fuzzy, Messy, Icky: The Edges of Consent in Biblical Rape Narratives and Rape Culture 3:00 p.m., Student Union Parliametary Room
Dr. Rebecca King is an address frameworks used to talk about sexual violence and consent in stories like Dinah, Tamar, and Lot’s daughters.
Info: Dr. Rebecca King, rebekka.king@mtsu.edu

An Afternoon with Julian Baker, songwriter/musician 4:00 p.m., BAS, State Farm Room
Sponsored by the College of Media and Entertainment and the Tom T. Hall Writer Series.
Info: Mark Jackson, mark.jackson@mtsu.edu

Anita: Speaking Truth to Power Documentary and Panel 6:00 p.m., JUB, Room 221
Anita Hill’s graphic testimony during Clarence Thomas’ Supreme Court nomination was a turning point for gender equality in the U.S. and ignited a political firestorm about sexual harassment and power in the workplace that resonates today. Against a backdrop of sex, politics, and race, Anita: Speaking Truth to Power directed by Academy Award-winning director Freida Mock.
Info: Kelly Hill, kelly.hill@mtsu.edu

Wednesday, March 20
Sloppy Bonny: Staged Reading
A Play-in-Progress by Krista Knight
3:40 p.m., Ingram Bldg., MT Center
A tale on the dangers of feminine sublimation, this is a play about feminine toxicity with a country-western musical. Create a more enigmatic and archetypal female by creating a supporting, nonviolent alternatives and loving communities while advocating change. They have given voice to the unrepresented and hope to others.” That theme is especially relevant.
Info: Dr. Judith Intratto-Gross, judith.intratto-gross@mtsu.edu

Thursday, March 21
“Breaking the Borders in Business”: A Business Women’s Panel 1:30 p.m., BAS, Room S128
Get an inside look real world experiences from women in the business world: Laura Sampedro, Tennessee Farm Bureau; Megan Byrum, Quest Financial Group; Veronica Terrell, Deloitte; and Francisa Sales, Redstone Federal Credit Union. The panel will focus on gender stereotypes at the workplace and how to break through the glass ceiling so women can take a seat at the table.
Info: Lily Shephard and Amanda Sampedro

Friday, March 22
MTSU Relay for Life 6:00 p.m.–midnight, Rec Center
Participate as an individual or as a team as we raise funds and awareness for the American Cancer Society. For students, faculty, or staff members who would like to be honored. Registration fee $5.
Info: Dr. Dianna Rust, dianna.rust@mtsu.edu

Monday, March 25—Friday, March 29
Clothing Our Educators Student Union Ballroom, 3rd Floor, Suite 330
The Jesse Anderson Center for Women, and the Non-Traditional Students and NWWM Committee is collecting clothing for the Clothing our Educators Boutique. The boutique provides students, mostly juniors and seniors, who are about to begin their teaching semesters or launch their full-time careers, with a non-cost professional “wardrobe.” Drop off gently used clothing including: slacks, skirts, blouses, dress shirts, blazers, ties, sweaters, jackets, and accessories.
Info: Barbara Scales, barbara.scales@mtsu.edu

Tuesday, April 2
Equali-Tee RAC/Pty March 26 4:30 p.m., Miller Center, 503 E. Bell St.
Keynote: Fawn Weaver, co-founder/CEO, Uncle Nearest Premium Whiskey (The high tea (not optional) event by AAJW Markeeshares raises money for the Middle Tennessee Fund for Women and Girls scholarships for women returning to complete a degree at MTSU. Weaver is an author and TED speaker. Tapet Award Recipient Diane Tummin, MTSU interim associate athletic director.
Info: Barbara Scales, barbara.scales@mtsu.edu; Dr. Mary Hofschwille, mary.hofschwille@mtsu.edu

Tuesday, April 16
The Misbehingle Exposed 9:00 a.m., JUB, Tennessee Room
Famed pianist Carole Enge has created a multimedia presentation on the fate of people of mixed “race” during the Holocaust.
Info: Dr. Nancy Rappehseit, nancy.rappehseit@mtsu.edu

Love Your Body Week
Mon., March 18: Circles of Security 5:00–7:00 p.m., BAS, Room S305
This is an open discussion about sex, sexuality, intimacy, body image, and sensuality.
Info: Hannah Rose, June Anderson Center intern, jasan@mtsu.edu

Wed., March 20: Suited Documentary 6:00 p.m., Student Union Theater, 2nd Floor
This HBO documentary tells the story of six clients fitted by Bindle & Keep, a tailoring company specializing in making clothing for women of this gender.

Thu., March 21: Love Your Body Yoga 5:00 p.m., Rec Center
Info: Hannah Rose, June Anderson Center intern, jasan@mtsu.edu

Thu., March 21: Love Your Skin Clinique Giveaway Location and time TBD

2019 WGSI Conference
Student Union Ballroom
Conference on Gender and Migration, Borderlands, and Diaspora. Events are free and open to the public. For full schedule, visit mtsu.edu/womens/conference

Thur., March 28: Love Your Skin 4:30–5:30 p.m., followed by book signing until 6:30 p.m.
Student Union Ballroom and Pre-Function Area
Daisy Hendery is a author of the award-winning memoir A Cup of Water Under My Bed and co-editor of Culture That: Young Women of Color on Today’s Feminism.

Fri., March 29: Panel, “Gendered Bodies and Indigenous Resistance in the Borderslands” 11:30 a.m.–1:30 p.m., Student Union Ballroom
This panel will explore the intersections of women’s cultures of resistance: identity, border crossings, and claims on bodies and spaces. Panelists include: Jacki Thompson Randall (University of Iowa), Lisa Kahalehole Hall, University of Victoria, Canada); Robert Colebatch (University of Nevada-Reno), and Paul Chilton (Middle Tennessee State University);

Fri., March 29: Love Your Skin 4:00–5:00 p.m.
Student Union Ballroom
This documentary short explores legal border crossings from Mexico to the U.S. for the purpose of childbirth.

Love Your Body Week
Mon., March 18: Circles of Security 5:00–7:00 p.m., BAS, Room S305
This is an open discussion about sex, sexuality, intimacy, body image, and sensuality.
Info: Hannah Rose, June Anderson Center intern, jasan@mtsu.edu

Wed., March 20: Suited Documentary 6:00 p.m., Student Union Theater, 2nd Floor
This HBO documentary tells the story of six clients fitted by Bindle & Keep, a tailoring company specializing in making clothing for women of this gender.

Thu., March 21: Love Your Body Yoga 5:00 p.m., Rec Center
Info: Hannah Rose, June Anderson Center intern, jasan@mtsu.edu

Thu., March 21: Love Your Skin Clinique Giveaway Location and time TBD

2019 WGSI Conference
Student Union Ballroom
Conference on Gender and Migration, Borderlands, and Diaspora. Events are free and open to the public. For full schedule, visit mtsu.edu/womens/conference

Thur., March 28: Love Your Skin 4:30–5:30 p.m., followed by book signing until 6:30 p.m.
Student Union Ballroom and Pre-Function Area
Daisy Hendery is a author of the award-winning memoir A Cup of Water Under My Bed and co-editor of Culture That: Young Women of Color on Today’s Feminism.

Fri., March 29: Panel, “Gendered Bodies and Indigenous Resistance in the Borderslands” 11:30 a.m.–1:30 p.m., Student Union Ballroom
This panel will explore the intersections of women’s cultures of resistance: identity, border crossings, and claims on bodies and spaces. Panelists include: Jacki Thompson Randall (University of Iowa), Lisa Kahalehole Hall, University of Victoria, Canada); Robert Colebatch (University of Nevada-Reno), and Paul Chilton (Middle Tennessee State University);

Fri., March 29: Love Your Skin 4:00–5:00 p.m.
Student Union Ballroom
This documentary short explores legal border crossings from Mexico to the U.S. for the purpose of childbirth.

MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY CHAMBERS OF PEACE AGAINST NONVIOLENCE VISIONARY WOMEN National Womens History Month 2019