

About Us

GTU is a Managing General Agency providing transportation and logistics insurance products to insurance brokers for their clients. We are a privately-owned company in Brentwood, Tennessee. Our people are recognized as knowledge experts in the fields of commercial auto and logistics insurance. As a Managing General Agency (MGA) we have the authority to underwrite and bind for our Insurance Carriers, providing crucial financial and risk analysis. We provide a vital service to both our brokers and our insurers.

Underwriting Trainee

We write many types of trucking risks for individual owner-operators, small fleets, mid-sized fleets, and large fleets in most states. With markets to cover conventional needs we also represent specialty writers with unique products. You will need good interpersonal, communication, technical, and organizational skills. This is not a telemarketing or direct sales position.
