

MTSU Scholars Week

Health Across the Disciplines: Panel on Health Research and Awareness

An interdisciplinary panel highlighting the work of scholars and practitioners

Wed., March 20, 2019
6:00-7:30 p.m.
BAS 276

Presenters

“Do I look fat in this?” Communication About the Body and Weight Stigma

Dr. Mary Beth Asbury, Department of Communication Studies

Better Living Through Synthesis

Dr. Scott Handy, Department of Chemistry

Generalized Propensity Score Methods for Comparing Combination Therapy in a Phase I Trial with Single-Agent Therapy in a Phase III Trial

Dr. Yeqian Liu, Department of Mathematical Sciences

A Walk to a Better Tomorrow:

Improving Mobility and Fitness in Persons with Disabilities

Dr. Don Morgan, Department of Health & Human Performance

Doulas and Occupational Stigma

Dr. Adelle Montebianco, Department of Sociology

Improving the Health and Well-Being of Tennesseans and That of the Nation

Linda Williams, M.A., MTSU Mental Health First Aid, MTSU Center for Health & Human Services

Organized & Moderated by Dr. Katie Foss, School of Journalism & Strategic Media

An Event From the Media & Communication Graduate Program and the College of Media & Entertainment