Frederick Douglass’ Plea for Free Speech and Open Inquiry

Friday, February 21, 2020
6:30 p.m.
Tennessee Room,
James Union Building

Nicholas Buccola, Ph.D.
Linfield College Elizabeth and Morris Glicksman Chair in Political Science Founding Director, Frederick Douglass Forum on Law, Rights, and Justice

Buccola will explore Douglass’ commitments to free speech and open inquiry, from his childhood to his days as an “old watchman on the walls of liberty.”

Rare books and documents on display

Parking and shuttle service available in Bell Street and Ingram lots (off Middle Tennessee Blvd.)

Handicapped parking behind James Union Building (near Middle Tennessee Blvd. and Bell Street)