

B.S. IN INDUSTRIAL-ORGANIZATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY

Information for Majors

If you decide to major in I-O Psychology (INPS), be sure to specify I-O Psychology, not just Psychology; they are different majors.

Use an upper-division form to a worksheet to plan your course work. Your advisors will also have forms available. If you have transferred from another university be sure to see an advisor as soon as possible to get credit for coursework taken elsewhere. You will have TWO advisors – a college advisor and a faculty advisor.

B.S. in Industrial-Organizational Psychology

Psychology Foundation Courses

Required courses (23 hours):

PSY 1410 General Psychology
PSY 2000 Seminar on Careers in Psychology
PSY 2210 Psychology of Social Behavior
PSY 3020 Basic Statistics for Behavioral Sciences
PSY 3070/3071 Research Methods & Lab
PSY 4260 Introduction to Psychological Testing

PSY 3230 Abnormal Psychology
or PSY 3590 Personality

PSY 4040 Introduction to Cognitive Psychology
or PSY 4480 Learning Theories

I-O Psychology Courses

Required courses (18 hours):

PSY 3320 Workplace Psychology (formerly Intro to Industrial-Organizational Psych)
PSY 4360 Organizational Psychology
PSY 4270 Personnel Selection and Placement
PSY 4290 Compensation System Design/Admin
PSY 4330 Industrial/Organizational Training and Development
PSY 4370 Motivation and Work Attitudes

Electives (6 hours from the following courses):

PSY 4380 Group Dynamics
PSY 4390 Persuasion
PSY 4720 Cross-Cultural Psychology
PSY 4730 Internship: Industrial
PSY 4340 Human Factors Psychology
PSY 4610 Adult Psychology and Aging
PSY 4830 Occupational Health Psychology

Total for major = 47 hours

You must earn a C- or better in all required Psychology and I-O classes.

We strongly recommend that you FIRST take:

PSY 3320 Workplace Psychology
PSY 3020 Basic Statistics for Behavioral Sciences

Then following specialized I-O courses may be taken in any order:

PSY 4270 Personnel Selection and Placement
PSY 4290 Compensation System Design/Admin
PSY 4330 Industrial-Organizational Training and Development
PSY 4360 Organizational Psychology
PSY 4370 Morale, Attitudes, and Motivation

The internship course - PSY 4730 Internship: Industrial - is for students who have completed many of the required I/O classes - typically seniors or juniors.

Plan your schedule of courses carefully. Some of the I/O required courses are offered only once a year, and most courses have a limited number of sections offered. If you have scheduling restrictions (e.g., only Tuesday-Thursday classes), you may have difficulty getting the courses you need. Also, we offer a few, but NOT all, required courses online. We recommend that you register as early as possible to ensure entry into required classes. I/O courses are typically offered as follows:

Fall, Spring, sometimes Summer:

PSY 3320 Workplace Psychology required
PSY 4360 Organizational Psychology required

Fall, Spring:

PSY 4260 Introduction to Psychological Testing required
PSY 4610 Adult Psychology and Aging elective
PSY 4390 Persuasion elective
PSY 4720 Cross-Cultural Psychology elective

Fall, sometimes Spring

PSY 4330 Industrial-Organizational Training and Development required

Fall ONLY:

PSY 4370 Motivation and Work Attitudes required
PSY 4830 Occupational Health Psychology elective

Spring ONLY:

PSY 4270 Personnel Selection and Placement required
PSY 4290 Compensation System Design/Admin required
PSY 4340 Human Factors Psychology elective

Individually scheduled:

PSY 4730 Internship: Industrial elective
PSY 3990 Research in Psychology elective

If this scheduling must be changed, we will let the advisors know.

ONLINE classes.

SOME of the I-O classes are offered online. However, you cannot complete the I-O psychology major completely online. Many of the psychology foundation classes, however, are available online. The I-O classes currently available online are: PSY 3320, PSY 4360, and PSY 4330. Additionally, PSY 4370 is offered as a blended course. Some electives may also be available online.

Pre-approved Minors:

A list of approved minors for I-O Psychology majors is listed below. The I-O Psychology major only requires ONE minor. We generally recommend one of the business minors: Business Administration, Business Law, Business Analytics, Information Systems, or Management.

Behavioral Research	Healthcare Administration
Business Administration	Information Systems
Business Analytics	Risk Management & Insurance
Business Law	Leadership
Communications	Management
Data Science	Not-for-Profit Management
Economics or Economics/Finance	Public Relations
Entrepreneurship	Statistics
Foreign Languages (any)

Other minors may be approved by the faculty advisor.

Discuss with your major and minor advisors which courses in those minors would be good choices. Registration controls may prohibit enrollment in Management classes unless you have earned at least 60 hours. Currently I-O psychology majors are pre-approved for minors in the college of business.

You must have a total of 120 hours to graduate! General education + major + minor < 120.

SHRM. We recommend that any student interested in I-O Psychology or any field related to Human Resources join the MTSU chapter of the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM). Meetings are announced in classes and via email. For additional information, visit the MTSU chapter website at <http://mtsu.edu/shrm/>

Internships. An internship enhances your job prospects upon graduation. Unfortunately, not everyone who wants to find an internship is able to do so. Finding an internship will take effort. Sources of information about internships: the career center on campus, SHRM, LinkedIn and friends and family. We also encourage students to check campus email regularly for announcements from faculty. You may also arrange an internship on your own. To get course credit for an internship (PSY 4730) contact an I-O faculty member to arrange supervision.

As you approach graduation:

Be sure to use the services of the Career Development Center, 328 KUC. www.mtsu.edu/career

Seniors: We recommend you join our LinkedIn alumni group! Contact Dr. Judy Van Hein (Judy.VanHein@mtsu.edu)

For questions and additional information, contact one of the I/O Psychology advisors:

Dr. Alex Jackson, 353 Academic Classroom Building (ACB), phone 615-898-5936
e-mail: Alexander.Jackson@mtsu.edu

Dr. Judy Van Hein, 375 Academic Classroom Building (ACB), phone 615-898-5752
e-mail: Judy.VanHein@mtsu.edu

B.S. IN INDUSTRIAL-ORGANIZATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY

FAQs

What is Industrial/Organizational (I-O) Psychology?

I-O Psychology is a subfield of psychology which applies psychology in the workplace. It includes areas such as employee selection, performance appraisal, training and development, compensation and benefits, work attitudes and motivation, leadership, and occupational health. Get more information on the web at www.siop.org.

Does I-O Psychology involve psychotherapy or mental health services?

No.

Would I be a “psychologist” with a B.S. in I-O Psychology?

No, a psychologist has a doctorate in psychology and must be licensed.

What kind of work would a person with a B.S. in I-O Psychology do?

This major prepares one for an entry-level position in Human Resources. Some possible job titles may be Human Resources Representative, Recruiter, HR Coordinator, HR Assistant, or Training Specialist. Get more information on the web about Human Resources at www.shrm.org or go to www.mynextmove.org and look at the job descriptions for Human Resources titles.

Do many colleges and universities offer this type of program?

No, some colleges and universities offer one introductory course in I/O Psychology at the undergraduate level, and some offer none. I-O Psychology programs are usually at the graduate level (master's or doctorate) only. This program at MTSU is quite unique.

What if I want to go to graduate school in I-O Psychology?

You may prepare for graduate study in I-O Psychology by majoring in Psychology or I-O psychology. Discuss your plans with your FACULTY advisor as soon as possible so that you know how to prepare for graduate school.

Where can I get more information about majoring in I-O Psychology?

<https://www.mtsu.edu/program/industrial-organizational-psychology-b-s/> and view the MTSU Undergraduate catalog: <http://catalog.mtsu.edu>

Talk to an I-O Psychology advisor:

Dr. Alex Jackson, 353 Academic Classroom Building (ACB), phone 615-898-5936
e-mail: Alexander.Jackson@mtsu.edu

Dr. Judy Van Hein, 375 Academic Classroom Building (ACB), phone 615-898-5752
e-mail: Judy.VanHein@mtsu.edu

Take PSY 3320 Workplace Psychology.