

How to Access Articles on MTSU Library Reserve

MTSU has already paid for access to the research articles for the PSY 1410 written reports. You do not need to purchase a copy of these articles. You will need to use the MTSU library databases to access this prepaid copy. To access a copy of the articles, go through the MTSU library reserve system. If you are working off campus your computer may ask for your pipeline / MTSU email login to confirm that you are a student.

1. Enter <http://library.mtsu.edu> into your web browser
2. From the quick links on JEWL search, choose library catalog

3. From the black menu bar at the top of your screen, choose course reserves

4. Search the reserves. From “by course” choose PSY 1410 Psy (Psychology All Instructors) then click “find”
