

Tucker Theatre is located at the heart of the campus of Middle Tennessee State University. You can reach the theatres by entering campus from Greenland Drive onto Champion Way or Blue Raider Drive, from Rutherford Blvd onto MTSU Blvd, or from Middle Tennessee State University Blvd onto Faulkinberry Drive. The Theatre is located in the Boutwell Dramatic Arts building. The Tucker Theatre lobby entrance is off of Champion Way.

For more information regarding Tucker Theatre or your matinee performance please contact John.underwood@mtsu.edu

For more information regarding parking on campus visit <https://www.mtsu.edu/parking>

Buses will be able to pull into the front area of Tucker Theatre (highlighted red) to load and unload students for the performance. Once unloaded buses will be able to park in the Rutherford Lot for the duration of the performance. If the front area of Tucker Theatre is occupied by a bus, please pull your bus in the staging area (highlighted Green) or loop around the interior of campus (highlighted orange) back towards Tucker Theatre. Chaperones and guests are welcome to park in any designated parking areas (highlighted blue) with a guest pass. A guest pass can be reserved with your group by contacting John.Underwood@mtsu.edu or directly from parking services at <https://mtsu.t2hosted.com/cm/newuser.aspx>.
