

Department of English

William Connelly, Chair
Peck Hall 302

The Department of English offers the Master of Arts, the Doctor of Philosophy, and a minor at the graduate level.

Materials required for application include official transcripts certifying coursework from each college or university attended, three letters of recommendation, GRE scores (English subject test optional), and a 500-word statement of purpose outlining academic interests and professional goals. Admissions decisions will be made after reviewing all materials and determining the applicant's capacity, suitability, and preparation for graduate study. Students are selected from a pool of qualified applicants. Admission to graduate study is not automatic by meeting minimum admission requirements.

Admissions Process

Application for Summer/Fall admission must be complete by April 1. Application for Spring admission must be complete by November 1. Those seeking teaching assistantships must apply by February 1 for the following Fall semester. All application materials should be sent directly to the Graduate College, other than the assistantship application, which should be sent directly to the director of graduate studies in the English Department.
